CURRENT ISSUES IN SEPTUAGINT STUDIES

SUMMER SCHOOL COURSE

The Graduate School of Theological Studies of Trinity Western University and the John William Wevers Institute for Septuagint Studies are pleased to co-sponsor a 3 credit course entitled "Current Issues in Septuagint Studies." Class sessions will be led by the Fellows of the Wevers Institute who are preparing volumes on the first four books of the Pentateuch for the Society of Biblical Literature Commentary on the Septuagint (SBLCS) series. Students will be introduced to the foundational principles and methodology of the SBLCS project, and to current, cutting-edge research in the discipline of Septuagint Studies.
